

A joint venture between Linden Homes and Affinity Sutton (now Clarion) to build 750 homes in Graylingwell required the development of a Trust to own and manage community facilities, build the community and encourage low carbon lifestyle.

We developed the business Plan supporting the S106 and project managed the establishment and early development of Chichester Community Development Trust, a key feature of the UK's largest net zero carbon housing development.