

The HCA required a Community Trust to be established to own and manage the community facilities at the old Fairmile Hospital as the new housing development programme rolled out.

We were commissioned to research the original Business Plan, and then to set up the Trust involving the existing local Parish and the nominated Registered Housing provider. We then set up and ran the Trust for two years before recruiting and handing over to a new Chief Officer.